Father, Son, Spirit – A Trinitarian Relationship

The names Christians give to God – Father, Son and Spirit – are both ancient and important. But we should never think they exhaust the possibilities of God's reality. Creator, mother, lover, redeemer, Saviour, higher power or friend all go some way to help us put words around our experience of our God, who is more and beyond all names we can possibly use.

The naming of God, however, is an important, but secondary focus to today's feast. There are two other facets to it that are more central.

The first is that the Trinity declares that relationships are at the very centre of God. We believe that the Father, Son and Spirit are in full communion, communication and relationship with each other at all times, in all places. To know Jesus is to know the Father and the Spirit and vice versa. They are one. This special relationship also indicates to us that nothing should matter more in our lives than our relationships with one another. To be like the God we profess every Sunday is to commit ourselves to our relationships, in all their varieties. To work hard on our relationships is, for a Christian, to touch the divine.

The second extraordinary thing we celebrate today is that the Father invites us into this loving relationship with Him, Jesus and the Spirit. What is especially consoling about this is that we are the only world religion that believes our God took our flesh. So through Jesus' life, teaching, compassion and sacrificial love we not only discover who he is, but, at one and the same time, we find out what God and the Spirit are like.

In Jesus we have been made worthy of God's love. God invites us into the compassionate embrace of the Trinity where we are and as we are, so that we can become all that God knows we can be.

Heart Spirituality

The Heart of Jesus is the Heart of God

What is the nature of the Word, his essence? His nature is the same as the principle from which he come. And if he is the splendour of the glory of his Father (Heb. 1:3), his power (1Cor 2:6), his image (2 Cor 4), the perfect copy of his nature (Heb. 1:3), he must also be the splendour, the power, the image, the copy, the substantial expression of the Heart of God, from which he is born. He must be eternal love (1 John 4:8). And this infinite love, basic to the very nature of God, and proper to his heart, is contained in a human heart (cf John 1:14), formed from the blood of a Virgin. So one of the most profound theologians of our century exclaims: "Christ is wholly God, his living sacrament, his complete gift, his Heart with which to love us" (Mgr. Gay).

everywhere loved.....forever!

Trinity – An Ocean of Love

In the feast of the Most Holy Trinity we are commemorating a central reality of our Christian faith, that God is Trinitarian in nature — three distinct persons in one God.

Contemplating the "ocean depths" of the mystery of the Trinity can make us humans feel so small, and almighty God so far from us.

God is intimately connected to us. "The love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us." God wants to live in the very depths of our being and in all the intimate details of our lives if we allow it. God holds back nothing of Himself from us. We are drawn right into the midst of this Trinitarian love. In fact, if the mystery of Holy Trinity is an ocean in which to swim, the "water" that makes up that ocean is love.

In response to this love we offer our lives back to God in total gratitude for calling us to live in the richness of such unfathomable love.
