Staying Connected while Physically Distant

THANK YOU

I would like to express my thanks to all those involved in broadcasting the Beautiful Easter mass.

When I first hooked in and saw the altar I found myself close to tears. It was the beautiful flowers which made me realise how many hidden helpers we have around the parish.

I've long thought I would like to say thank you to whomever it is who provides a clean hand towel in the ladies bathroom every week. There are many Marthas working around us, some not needed at the moment. I look forward to a time when they are needed again.

People want change, but they want it to come without discomfort.

They want to rock no boats, make no waves. They think that people can be talked into change. The fact is that most people only change when they have no choice.

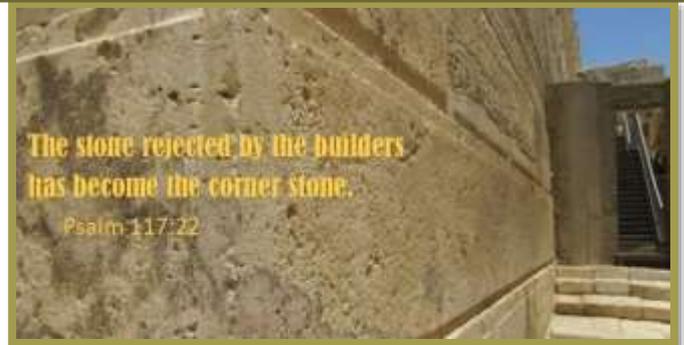

Think of the great attitudinal changes in your life. What incidents happened that made change necessary? What kind of things are you yourself doing to bring necessary changes now? After all, one of the functions of leadership is to lead.

Church Bulletin Notices

The ladies of the Church have cast off clothing of every kind. They may be seen in the basement on Friday afternoon.

Today's Gospel John 21: 1-14

This is a prayer I say each day before I get out of bed, it helps me get through each day. It may help you too.

Dear Lord, help me to remember that nothing is going to happen to me today that you and I can't handle together. Amen

YOU are the Body of Christ

If you want to understand the Body of Christ, listen to the apostle telling the faithful, "YOU, though are the Body of Christ, and its members" (1 Cor. 12:27). So if it is you that are the Body of Christ and its members, it's the mystery that is you that has been placed on the Lord's table; what you receive is the mystery that means you. It is to what you are that you reply Amen, and by so replying you express your assent. What you hear, you see, is the Body of Christ, and you answer, Amen. So be a member of the Body of Christ, in order to make that Amen true. St Augustine
