Today's Gospel John 3: 31-36

TAKE TIME

Take time to think

Take time to pray

Take time to laugh

It is the source of power

It is the greatest power on earth

It is the music of the soul

Take time to play

Take time to love and be loved

Take time to give

It is the secret of perpetual youth

It is God's given privilege

It is too short a day to be selfish

Take time to read

Take time to be friendly

Take time to work

It is the fountain of wisdom

It is the road to happiness

It is the price of success

Take time to do charity

It is the key to heaven

CONGRATULATIONS

Fr. Chris McPhee msc has been reappointed Provincial by the members of the Australian Province of the Missionaries of the Sacred Heart for another three-year term.

May Chris be filled with God's grace and wisdom as he continues to lead the Province for the next three years.

Church Bulletin Notices

This evening at 7pm there will be hymn singing in the park across from the Church. Bring a blanket and come prepared to sin.

Size 14 shoes.....

I thought I'd pass on something to make us feel there is still good out there.

A friend of mine who is a pensioner on a very restricted budget came across a post on her computer from a lady who had left home because of domestic violence, with very little money and a son with large feet and no warm shoes. She was looking for somewhere which stocked size 14 shoes, but most of the shops were shut and her budget was limited. My pensioner friend sent her enough to buy on line with the comment "The government just gave me $750, I can buy the kid a pair of shoes."

Life is a series of small deaths. We lose jobs and get left by people and move out of cities and get overlooked for promotions and see our dreams dissolve in mid-air. Those things are as sure in life as death itself. The only question every small and separate death confronts us with is "Are we willing to believe that we will rise again?"
