

KIT @ KIPPAX

Staying Connected while Physically Distant

Friday 27 March 2020

RCIA

Please pray for our RCIA candidates: Louise Bulfin, Iain Forsyth, David Graham, Rebecca Neiberding and Jennifer Wheatley. They are bereft that they will not be fully received into the life of Christ this Easter. We pray that they will continue to be filled with Christ's light and love as they patiently wait for their full initiation into Christ's life.

A Parishioner's Reflection

Yesterday I drove to lake Ginninderra and undertook a medium length walk, taking note of how beautiful the surrounds are, including the small group of cattle lazily chewing under the shady trees. My main purpose was to assess suitable areas for quiet meditation. So today following a further walk (gyms closed) I enjoyed one of the grassy expanses where I sat down with today's streamed beautiful Mass with Fr James Antony from Gowrie Parish.

In such a peace-filled setting where smatterings of walkers and bike riders pass by, birds boldly visit in search of food.

We are so blessed having this wonderful space with such beautiful weather at this time of year. Space for so many others too to enjoy.

[Name withheld by request]

Today's Gospel Jn. 7:1-2,10,25-30

School at Home

Whilst being in lock down has proven a challenge, especially with three primary school students, I am also appreciating the family time. We have made a practice of meeting 9.00am ready to start the day with morning prayers or participating in an online mass. It is a great start to the day and a time for us to come together and profess our intentions and ask for God's healing. Tony also set up an altar like table where we can gather to pray. Sending lots of well wishes to all our fellow parishioners. Stay safe and we look forward to celebrating mass together soon.

Norma Barakat

A wise person was once asked:

'In any relationship, which is more important? To love or to be loved?'

The wise person answered:

'Which is more important to a bird, its left wing or its right wing?'

Submitted by Elaine Laycock

Staying Connected

In the last few days if someone has crossed your mind – why not check on them and see if they are ok. Pick up the phone, give them a call – send an email. If we can help in any way let us know.

The Parish Office is open usual hours