Staying Connected while Physically Distant

Wednesday 17 June 2020

Today's Gospel Matt: 6:1-6, 16-18

Shelter Me

Shepherd and sheep, my God and I: to fresh green fields you led my steps in days gone by.

You gave me rest by quiet springs and filled my soul with peace your loving presence brings.

Refrain: O shelter me, O shelter me: the way ahead is dark and difficult to see.
O shelter me, O shelter me: all will be well if only you will shelter me.

Yet now I tread a different way; death dogs my path with stealthy steps from day to day.

I cannot find your peaceful place but dwell in dreary darkness, longing for your face. Refrain

I will look back in days to come and realize your faithfulness has led me home.

Within your house I'll find my peace, trusting that in your mercy you have sheltered me.

Nothing More, Nothing Less

The ancient prayer, points us today to say "give us this day, our daily bread"
nothing more, nothing less
simplicity, simplicity
simplicity, simplicity

The ancient faith, points us today to make a path, a peaceful way
nothing more, nothing less walk in peace, walk in peace

The ancient way, points us today to speak the truth, to live the truth
nothing more, nothing less integrity, integrity
nothing more, nothing less
integrity, integrity

to build a house, of unity
nothing more, nothing less community, community

The ancient flame, points us today to see the light, through every face nothing more, nothing less
equality, equality
equality, equality
equality, equality.
